2. BELLA

Lucie Koldová

This standing lamp is inspired by a campanile. Precious copper and a glossy finish give it a luxurious, timeless appeal. Handcrafted by artisans as an object of beauty, it has delicate, flat-ribbon legs that rise upwards to hold the copper bell, so creating a loop around the shade. peruse.be

3. DON'T FORGET ME

LMCM

The table top has a hood that gives way to storage space for small objects and accessories. Next to it is a lamp, positioned through a hole in the table. peruse.be

4. URBEM

Christopher Jenner

An eight-piece lighting collection comprising of handcrafted, three-layered opal glass lampshades, a study in convex and concave form. Impressively sized, the fixture draws inspiration from late 19th century Milanese street lights and evokes the emotion of the industrial and technological ambition of the era. christopher-jenner.com

5. WALLIE

Lorenza Bozzoli

A lamp of golden brass and powder-coated stainless steel, inspired by the American sculptures of the '50s. tatoloto.com

6. THE SIBLINGS

Frederik Delbart

The clear glass shade can be rotated to aim the light beam, immediately creating playful, shiny reflections in the glass, accentuating the pure formal lines and the contrast with the matte wooden base. peruse.be

8. GRIDLOCK 1912

Philippe Malouin

Raw and unpretentious, Gridlock is a series of lamps in the style of the Brutalist movement. It feels industrial in its straightforward, platonic forms and the repetitive efficiency of the grid; however, it is assembled entirely by hand from thousands of tiny brass parts. rollandhill.com
